

On front page

- Katherine Babson – A member of the Board of Selectmen; Former Town Moderator and Advisory Committee Chair.
- Steve Baker - An abutter; president of his own architectural firm that has designed academic facilities at the university level
- John Donahue, Facilities Director of the Town, former Manager of Physical Plants for the Massachusetts Convention Center.
- Tom Goemaat, CEO of Shawmut Design and Construction, which has performed major projects for educational institutions throughout New England.
- Steve Gagosian, a member of the Permanent Building Committee, is an architect with strong historical preservation credentials, a licensed general contractor and a professional arbitrator.
- Rusty Kellogg, a member of Advisory Committee; a former accountant, CFO and small business owner
- Andrew Keough, the new High School principal, who has extensive experience with new and renovated school building projects
- Hans Larsen, the Town's Executive Director, and former Advisory Committee Chair.
- Suzy Littlefield, a member of the School Committee, Former Advisory Committee member and the lead person from the School Committee on the Middle School renovation project.
- Kathy Mullaney, the staff to the PBC for the past 10 years and former Advisory Committee member.
- Cynthia Westerman, an abutter, has 18 years experience as an independent project manager for private school building projects.
- Bella Wong As of July 1, 2007, Superintendent of Schools; Bella has been the lead administrator contact for all of the school building projects.